HYNDMAN, PENNSYLVANIA

We wish to dedicate this yearbook to you . . .

Mrs. Kipp has "kept her cool" during all the sometimes-trying yearbook meetings. In the last days of planning and hurrying to meet a deadline Mrs. Kipp came through, waving the victorious colors of orange and black. We're still dying to try some of those watermelon pickles!

. . . and to you, our class sponsors, for your never-ending help, and for this our Hornet.

Mr. McVicker, or Coach, as he came to be called, has given us many wonderful headaches, either by worrying us with money matters or pulling our hair because of some unfavorable deed. We would like to thank him for all the splendid? times in Physics class and all the memories and lessons we're sure he'll leave behind when he leaves Hyndman High.

'69 CLASS HISTORY

As the years go by, history is made by everything. We, the Seniors, made history by getting to where we are now (though it may be considered by some as making a miracle instead of history). We wish to preserve our endeavors by submitting this document to you, the readers, and to us, the class, to look upon for future reminiscences.

Our memories of a "brilliant education" in high school started with our Freshman year. This year was like first grade all over again--the open eyes, open ears, and open mouths were still there. Although no class activities were scheduled for that year, our batallion of 64 students kept the teachers active with our great potential for learning new tricks. We're sure our class sponsors, Miss Valentine and Mrs. Harclerode, were sorry to see us leave.

When another year had gone by, we found ourselves the wise fools, the Sophomores, of Hyndman High. Losing 9 students, we intensified our effort for our class project, the great Sophomore candy sale. Thanks to the help of our sponsors, Mr. Bistline and Mrs. Van Meter, we looked forward to a richer and brighter future.

Our Junior year proved to be a busy one. We tried everything from toothbrushes to Broadway. Donning our Fuller Brush sales pitch, we headed a campaign to fight tooth decay by selling toothbrushes. Another of our civic-minded projects was to help stamp out starvation in Hyndman. This we did by scheduling two dinners which actually got the Seniors out the door of the Poor House. After long hours of practice, we finally made our Broadway debut and presented "Three Fingers in the Door" for the captivated Hyndman audience. Spring drew near and we began to visualize dreams of our Prom. As a result of weary nights of planning and decorating, we bestowed upon the Seniors our stupendous all-night prom, "La Mer". The school year came to a close, and we left Mr. Mellott and Mrs. Logsdon resting their weary bones.

Here we are now as Seniors--the beginning of the end. Our play, "The Hoax of Hogan's Holler" proved to be a "mighty 'commodatin' " success. We look forward to better days--the Senior trip, Commencement, and winning a battle with our loyal sponsors; our money-watcher Mr. McVicker, and our money-splurger Mrs. Kipp. As we leave to seek fortune and fame, and end our final year of the long climb to self-destruction, we'll always remember the never-ending help of our sponsors, who succeeded in surmounting all obstacles and in completing this, our immortal remembrance, the Yearbook.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of 1969 of Hyndman High School realizing grave dangers supervening May 28, 1969, hereby publish this document as a legacy of our undiminished talent, and universal dreams entrust to the members of the Junior Class these personal relics:

LANE ALBURN wills to Randy Shaffer his height hoping he'll eventually grow up. STEVE SIDES sadly relinquishes the back seat on the basketball bus to Greg Turner. ELVA JEAN GROWDEN hopes that Linda Sturtz will someday find the man for her. FREEMAN DEIST leaves Ron Miller any and all of the girl trouble that he can find. DONNA SAGER hands over her blonde locks and her giggles to Janet Stahlman hoping she will let her hair grow. STEVE WISLER assigns his great harmonizing ability to Larry Hite. LINDA KENNEL leaves behind orders for Etta Holbrook to keep the home economics room jolly. ZANE SHAFFER contributes his sly, crafty, devilish, sayings to Albert Tipton, in hopes that he'll keep the detention hall in Mrs. VanMeter's room filled. BETH and NAN LOQUE resolve their trouble with contacts to Theresa Bohn hoping she can find them up her sleeve. JOHN SHAFFER releases his sneaky kissing abilities in the hall to Glen Whitford hoping that he won't get caught. CAROLYN GIBBNER releases her good shape to Sheila Waugerman hoping she'll starve. JOHN HUTZELL reminds Gary Sturtz to keep his eyes on the basketball and off the girls. BETTY CLITES contributes to Barb Ritchey her craziness and ability to run the halls during classes. BILL KREIGLINE leaves behind his loss of nerves to Bill Gaumer hoping that he will improve them. BARB MEYERS donates to Vicki Zimmerman the ability to get along with other people except their boyfriends. GARY COOK leaves to Ray Kirkpatrick his strength and energy hoping he will put it to good use. CATHY WAUGERMAN wills her place on the wrestling squad to Sandy Shaffer in hopes she will win some matches. GARY and ROGER BURKETT will to Troy Gibbner the streets of Hyndman hoping he doesn't tear them up to bad. PAULA McVICKER presents to Marie Logsdon her Volkswagen in hopes it will last her through the year. RON SHAFFER and LELAND CUMMINGS sacrifice their frequent trips to the smoke house to John Harden hoping he will cough it all up. BARB EMERICK and SUZANNE JOHNSTON donate to Mary Margaret Minnick their Marriage plans in hopes that she carries them out. DANNY KENNEL presents his set of weights to Gary Leydig in hopes his muscles begin to bulge. ELIZABETH WAGNER donates to Linda Troutman her boy crazy ideas hoping that she will soon catch one. RICHARD LEHR submits to Kenneth Merkel his blonde hair hoping that he never bleaches it. BEV LAFFERTY assigns the path between their houses to Sandy Jordan hoping she keeps it occupied. DENNY GRAY and KENNY DERMER donate to Jim Printy their wrestling skills hoping he wins. LAURA GETSON bequeaths to Brenda Lolyd her height hoping she finds a boy tall enough. LEROY LOWERY and JIM WILLIAMS present to Steve Sherman their lack of brains knowing he will put them to good use. DONNA KEEL transfers to Polly Evans her ability to roam the study halls and study the boys. PERRY RITCHEY contributes to Harvey Shroyer his neatness of hair hoping he will do a good job of keeping his neat. RHONDA KLINE delivers to Susan Reese her shyness with boys hoping Susan gets over it. DENNY LOWERY submits to Jim Savage his ability to get on teachers nerves hoping he does a good job. LURA LOTZ contributes to Kay Shaffer her shortness and pleasant personality telling her to keep up the good work. DAVE REED and JIM SHROYER release to Bill Ward their shy and backward ways wishing him the best of luck. CONNIE ALBRIGHT delivers to Delores Lafferty her quietness hoping she soon opens her mouth. JOHN MILLER and LYNN LARGENT leave to Gregg Evans their driving experience. MARY JO CONNER relinquishes to Bev Cook her dancing techniques. CLAY LOGSDON leaves to Mike Shaffer his techniques on how to swindle Mr. Close in shop. KAREN EVANS leaves behind her dating ability hoping Brenda Twigg will make good use of them. RONNIE STAIR gladly gives to Tom Groves his straight hair hoping he soon learns the secret. VICKI HORNER donates to Cathy Lehr her good grades in the understanding that she will make good use of them. FLORENE KINTON and EDNA MAE DAY contribute to Mona Albright and Iva Miller the hope that they will stay in school.

In testimony whereof, we hereunto subscribe our hands and seal on this thirty-first day of January, 1969.

Hornets Sting Meyersdale

Hyndman High had to ward off a last-quarter spurt by Meyersdale's five last night to come through with a 62-60 victory at home in the lidlifter for both quints.

The Hornets, taking a 50-39 edge into the final period, saw the lead melt to three points but spurred with several steals and key defensive moves to get the victory.

Meyersdale had the final shot but missed and the Hornets pulled in the rebound and kept the ball until the final buzzer.

Bob Miller and Freeman Deist sparked the Hornets with 15 and 14 points while Jeff Holler and Steve Sides had 12 apiece. Dale Bachner and Don Haer had 18 each for the losers.

Hornet Matmen Lose To Northern Bedford, 49 To 6

Hyndman High's wrestlers copped two of the first matches which were staged but then were defeated by pins in eight of the last nine as the Hornets were handed a 49-6 shellacking by Northern Bedford County last night at Hyndman.

Hyndman's Bob Izzett won the opener by a decisive 11-0 score and after Northern Bedford won the 103-pound class on a forfeit, the Hornets scored again when Kenny Merkel, in his first varsity match, decisioned Steve Smith 14 to 6.

NBC then began their nine-match win skein which included eight pins, sending Hyndman to its fourth loss in as many outings. Northern Bedford now sports a record of two wins and five setbacks.

Larry Baker of NBC pinned Hyndman's Bill Kreigline in the 120-pound match for his tenth straight victory.

The Hornets will entertain Allegany next Thursday.

Yesterday's results:

95-pound: Bob Izzett, Hyndman, decisioned Larry Graffius, 11-0.

103-pound: Brice Miller, NBC, won by forfeit.

112-pound: Ken Merkel, Hyndman, decisioned Steve Smith, 14-6.

drived Freeman Deist a no-hit ball game, but it was the only hit he allowed in weaving Hyndman to a 14-1 victory over the Hornet's visitors.

Deist faced only 24 batters in seven innings, fanned seven and didn't issue a walk in posting his first win of the season against two losses. It lifted the Hornets, who invade Northern Bedford County today, to a 2-3-1.

Fred Topper, with a double and two singles, garnered six RBI while John Clites was 4-for-4.

Hyndman Stops NBC, 65 To 59

Hornets Gain Tie, 6 And 2

Hyndman High remained in the running for the Bedford County League championship by nipping Northern Bedford County, 65 to 59, Friday night at Hyndman, dropping NBC into a tie with the Hornets in the league standings.

Both teams have won six and lost two. NBC had been tied for first place with Everett, who played winless Chestnut Ridge last night.

The contest was nip-and-tuck throughout the first half, with the score being tied eight times. It was 13-13 after the first period and it was 29-all midway through the second stanza that Hyndman went ahead to stay.

The Hornets held a 37-33 advantage at intermission and led 50-45 after three periods of play.

Steve Sides was high scorer for the victors with 16 points, while teammates John Hutzell had 12 points and Bob Miller chipped in with eleven.

Beach was high man for Northern Bedford with 19 markers, and Miller contributed 18.

Hyndman outshot NBC from the floor, 27 to 23, although the losers held a meaningless 13-11 edge at the free throw line.

The NBC junior varsity won the preliminary contest over the Hyndman juniors, 57 to 52.

Hyndman's next game is Tuesday at Flintstone.

Basketball for Hyndman started at the Community Center in 1950. John Keller and Charlie Close were on the team. Past coaches have been Jack Jones, Chris Stoner, and Harry McKinley.

John Keller started to coach at Hyndman in 1959-60. That year we advanced to State Class "C". We went to the semi-finals with a season's record of 12-12. In 1960-61 we won the District V Class "C" championship. Our season's record then was 12-12. In 1961-62 we advanced to State Class "C" Semi-finals, our season's record then was 10-13. From 1962-63 to 1966-67 we won the Bedford County League Championships, District V, Class "C". In 1967-68 we won the team sportsmanship trophy at the Boswell Tournament. Our record that year was 14-9.

Now in the 1968-69 season, we are placing high hopes in our team.

WHO'S THE WISE GUY . . . ?

Freeman Deist, Richard Lehr, Zane Shaffer, Perry Ritchey, John Shaffer, Steve Sides

Coach Mellott, commonly known as "Clyde" to his boys, started coaching in the 1962-63 season. For two years he was assisted by Les Bistline. Clyde's major problem is the lack of boys interested in wrestling. He prefers two or three boys at each weight, of which there are twelve categories. This year nothing outstanding has happened, but the team is trying to break its losing streak.
